Hi There!

Hi There!

I was alone in my studer on New years day, and reflecting on my good fortune in having the sense to move to Wethersfield, where I could consolidate my home and teaching under one roof.

on Main Street, which housed down on Street level. the second most important department Store on Corem

The upper floors, reached by a pull the rope elevator was of the architecture in the 18th and 19th century. Each floor has apartment and office surrounding a well-like aperture which bordered the "Well".

It was the un-official School of music, of Harlford and surrounding town and it was presided over by a janitor-superinstendant, whose tenants were greeted by him each morning, with the salutation. "hello THERE", because of his inability to somewhe, their names. I once suggested to him that he greet each arrival with "It! There" and he stonety replied "that would not by seemly."

Since I am an admirer of Johann Itrauss In, and his beautiful Waltzes and palkes, I hope you too will like this one
